

WE ARE GOING TO THE OTHER SIDE

Mark 6: 45-56

Mark 6: 45-56

Immediately Jesus made his disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of him to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd. After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

Later that night, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and he was alone on land. He saw the disciples straining at the oars, because the wind was against them. Shortly before dawn he went out to them, walking on the lake. He was about to pass by them, but when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought he was a ghost. They cried out, because they all saw him and were terrified.

Immediately he spoke to them and said, 'Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid.' Then he climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were completely amazed, for they had not understood about the loaves; their hearts were hardened.

When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognised Jesus. They ran throughout that whole region and carried those who were ill on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went – into villages, towns or countryside – they placed those who were ill in the market-places. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

“whether you can consent to her departure, her subjection to hardships, suffering of a missionary life....to every kind of want and distress, insult, persecution and perhaps a violent death.....”

Adoniram Judson

“..can you consent to all this, in hope of soon meeting your daughter in the world of glory, with the crown of righteousness, brightened with the acclamation of praise which shall resound to her savior from heathen's saved”

Adoniram Judson

THE MISSION OF GOD

1 John 4 v 14

'And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Saviour of the world.'
